

Miranda Lambert

The singer shares the six things she's most thankful for

1. MY SPIRITUAL LIFE

I know every day when I wake up, I have the Lord watching over me.

2. MY FAMILY

Ever since I told them what I wanted to do, everyone in my family has been my No. 1 fan. They're also quick to tell me when I'm living too high on the horse.

3. MY FANS

I've been able to have a really great career so far and do it my way. I see other artists struggle and have people try to change who they are. I get to be true to myself because my fans get me.

4. PUPPY LOVE

I am so thankful for all my sweet dogs and their unconditional love. Delilah and Delta Dawn are road dogs—they actually travel with me on tour—and the others live on my farm. All of my angels bring so much joy to my life.

5. MY RELATIONSHIP WITH BLAKE

I'll get a little bit cheesy and say that I am so blessed to have the relationship that I have with Blake [Shelton]—we are best friends. And his sense of humor is a whole other blessing in itself! I can't take myself too seriously around him.

6. BACARDI AND SPRITE ZERO

I wanted a low-cal mixed drink that tasted good, so through a lot of trial and error I found what works—Bacardi and Sprite Zero. It's a good shoulder to lean on!
